Show Juror:

Our 2018 juror is William Jameson of Saluda, NC.

An excerpt from Bill's bio follows. Visit www.williamjameson.com to read his full biography and view his work.

Born in 1944 in Honea Path, South Carolina, William Jameson always felt strong ties to his native region. Today, he and his wife, Anne, also a painter (www.annejamesonfineart.com), reside and paint in Saluda NC. Bill credits growing-up surrounded by the natural beauty and rich history of South Carolina with inspiring his childhood ambitions of becoming an artist. After studying with Frank Rampola at the Ringling School of Art in Florida, Jameson continued his studies while teaching landscape painting and life drawing as a graduate assistant at the Instituto Allende in San Miguel de Allende in Mexico. Bill has drawn inspiration from a wide array of bodies of work, ranging from the drypoint etchings of American landscape artist, Chauncey Foster Ryder to the Renaissance masterpieces of Titian.

Bill's passion for history and nature allow him to create introspective landscapes embodying the full range of local color and timeless contrasts, whether the setting captures the brilliant, warm colors heralding the arrival of fall in the North Carolina mountains or the rich Tuscan countryside dotted with cool blue/green olive fields in bloom among the red-earth shades of freshly upturned soil. Rejecting the term "scene" in reference to these works, Bill defines his landscapes as "explorations."

Workshop:

William Jameson will conduct a 3 day workshop "Working Large Without Fear" at Cape Fear Studios June 21-23, 2018 in conjunction with the show opening. Visit www.capefearstudios.com or www.williamjameson.com for more information. Sign up early!
